MUSIC CONCERT ANNOUNCEMENT

April 1, 2006 — 7:30 pm

The Folk Music Society of Huntington's FIRST SATURDAY CONCERTS will present:

ELIZA GILKYSON

edgy lyrics, poetic imagination . . . sultry vocals

Her voice rides in on a sigh over waves of notes sliding over steel strings. It's a steely whisper, singing of yearnings and the heart it takes to deal with them. There's a slight twang, hinting at homespun country sensibility. Austin's Eliza Gilkyson is a gifted songwriter and storyteller. Her songs of relationships are stunning in their naked portrayal of her battles with her pain and need ... A tall, elegant woman with blond, spiky hair she exudes intelligence and a breezy sense of humor. Only a man with dulled senses would not feel his heart skip a beat. Beyond the heat of her personal revelations, she possesses a fiery global vision that enables her to light big bonfires under big issues like the current political situation.

The daughter of successful songwriter Terry Gilkyson, Eliza is a third generation musician who grew up in Los Angeles knowing that her life would revolve around music.

This evening will be uplifting ... an evening of intimate, delicate-voiced songs given to musical introspection. Eliza is a performer with an honest voice and understated, life affirming lyrics. Don't miss it!
