MUSIC CONCERT ANNOUNCEMENT

May 20, 2006 — 8:00 pm

The Folk Music Society of Huntington's HARD LUCK CAFÉ will present two performers:

Andrew McKnight

Wherever Andrew McKnight takes the stage, audiences are at once spellbound and relaxed by his entertaining stories delivered with just the right touches of down home humor, causing one concertgoer to label him "equal parts Robert Frost, William Least Heat-Moon, and Jeff Foxworthy!" Andrew's insightful lyrics, vocal richness and bluesy guitar licks have become distinctive trademarks.

Since permanently leaving his corporate environmental engineering career in 1996, singer, writer and guitarist McKnight's musical journey has traced over a quarter million miles of blue highways and small towns across the country, crafting his cinematic vignettes of Americans and their landscapes in music, poetry and prose in between 125 performances each year and on four critically acclaimed CDs. His latest CD, Beyond Borders, was nominated for the Independent Music Awards' 2005 Americana Album of the Year as well as the Washington Area Music Awards Best Contemporary Folk Recording. Beyond Borders includes his song Good Things Matter, the winner of the Great American Song Contest in the Acoustic/Folk category.

Expect an entertaining and enlightening evening with this environmentally sensitive folk troubadour.

Performers

Larry Moser & Mary Nagin

Larry Moser and Mary Nagin have been charming audiences for ten years with delightful old time music — they'll present a mix of songs and tunes, mostly historic — from the 1600s to the 1900s.

Larry is one of very few virtuoso hammered dulcimer players on Long Island. He also plays English concertina, accordion and guitar, and all these instruments will play their part in the show. Mary plays lead melodies and beautiful harmonies on fiddle. Be prepared to sing, since a lot of the songs have choruses.

They are regulars at the Old Bethpage Village Restoration in Old Bethpage and at the King Manor Museum in Jamaica. They play for private events and give concerts at libraries and historical societies. They perform with LITMA, the Long Island Traditional Music Association and can be heard (and danced to) at LITMA contradances in Smithtown and Watermill.

ABOUT THE CONCERT AND VENUE:

Concert at 8:00 pm, at the Congregational Church of Huntington, 30 Washington Drive, Centerport (just off 25A).

An "open mike" segment precedes the main concert. All are welcome at the open mike; sign up is before 7:50 p.m.

Refreshments, including home baked goods, will be available throughout the entire evening.

General admission for this event is $8, with $6 for members. For more information regarding this event please call (631) 661-1278 or email to info@fmshny.org
